

Devon & Cornwall Police
Register of Gifts & Hospitality 2011

The Force's policy on gifts and hospitality (D263) can be viewed by clicking <http://www.devon-cornwall.police.uk/YourRightInformation/FreedomInformation/Policies/D263.pdf>

Name	Date	Description of gift / hospitality	Action Taken
Constable	January	Card containing £10 and thank you from a friend of a Domestic Abuse Individual for assistance provided, followed by further card containing £5 from individual themselves	Advice given to officer to donate money to Womens Refuge in accordance with officers wishes. Advice note created.
PCSO	January	Christmas Present of Radio Controlled Helicopter valued at £20 from member of public.	Advice given to PCSO to donate the helicopter to children's charity. Advice note created.
Police Staff	February	One bottle of wine from NPIA Syndicate Directors of Strategic Command Course – value unknown	Recorded only
Constable	March	£10 sent to officer for assisting an elderly lady in connection with return of Deposit for work not carried out on her roof	Officer donated £10 to Widows and Orphans fund in line with Donors
2 Police Officers	May	Large reference book of approximate value £30-£40	Book has been retained as training material.
Camborne Police Station	May	Number of tickets inviting Police Officers and Staff to attend training evenings at new Wetherspoons Public House in Camborne on 27, 28 and 29 May 2011 to receive free drink and a meal. Tickets were also being handed out to Fire Brigade and Ambulance Service	Advice given not to accept tickets (which were subsequently destroyed). Advice note created
Chief Constable	June	Meal provided by Daily Mail Crime Associate Editor at Southgate Hotel Exeter paid for by Editor	Recorded only

Please note names of some individuals will have been removed from the above as it constitutes personal data. Any information relating to specific investigations will have also been removed

2 Senior Police Officers	July	2 tickets each for the Royal International Air Tattoo at RAF Fairford 16 - 17 July 2011 (4 tickets in all) Value unknown	Recorded only
Sergeant	July	A thank you card, bottle of wine and small box of chocolates given as a thank you for conducting a work experience programme	Recorded only
Chief Constable and Police Staff	August	Dinner meeting attended with local editor of BBC South West, Radio Cornwall. Editor paid for the meal.	Recorded only and passed to Professional Standards
Police Staff	September	Invitation has been extended by Commvault (Force Software providers) to Head of ICT Service Management and another to attend evening reception and have overnight accommodation prior to an IT Expo in Central London on 18/10/2011 where other customers will be present	Advice given that hospitality can be accepted for evening meal and accommodation only. All other costs must be met by Devon and Cornwall police.
Chief Constable	September	Dinner meeting attended at Santini London arranged and paid for by Xsequor.	Recorded only
Constable	September	At Licensed Trade Association Meeting Totnes Town Centre NBM officer was presented with an engraved Dartington Crystal Decanter, two Crystal glasses, two miniature bottles of whiskey. A bottle of orange juice and packet of crisps were also presented and consumed on that evening.	Advice given that decanter and glasses should be displayed in Totnes police station and treated as a gift to the Force. The miniatures of whiskey should be declined or donated to charity. Advice Note Created
Police Staff	September	Dinner meeting with NPIA Chief Executive hosted by Collinson Grant with value in excess of £30.00	Advice note created. Approval given to attend the event by Chief Constable in July 2011

Please note names of some individuals will have been removed from the above as it constitutes personal data. Any information relating to specific investigations will have also been removed

Custody Centre Charles Cross	October	Two large tins of Quality Street chocolates from food and catering company 3663 for dispersal amongst staff at Christmas. Value under £30.00	Advice given that the sweets can be accepted provided they are distributed to staff
Detective Sergeant	November	One box of chocolates from Victim of Operation, value under £30.00	Recorded only
Detective Chief Inspector	November	One box of chocolates from Victim of Operation, value under £30.00	Recorded only
Police Staff	December	£10 Amazon Gift Voucher from M86 Security for taking part and completing the M86 Security customer survey	Advice given that Gift voucher can be retained in line with Force policy. Recipient has decided that it will be donated to his sons school to be used for books or similar
Police Staff	December	£25 gift vouch and orchid presented as a thank you from Crimestoppers Board as thank you for all the help given them over the years	Recorded only
Constable	December	One box of chocolates and a bottle of Red Wine from a member of the public who was assisted by female police officer who carried out first aid until arrival of paramedics who took him to hospital. Value under £30.00	Recorded only.

Please note names of some individuals will have been removed from the above as it constitutes personal data. Any information relating to specific investigations will have also been removed