

ACC Local Policing and Partnerships – Glen Mayhew

Expenses

1 October – 31 December 2023

In this class of information you will find the Assistant Chief Constable's travel and hospitality expenses.

Travel expenses are reimbursed where they have been necessarily incurred whilst exercising the duties of the Assistant Chief Constable.

Hospitality is afforded to others when it facilitates the policing business or is considered desirable as a matter of courtesy and protocol.

Hotel accommodation is booked where an overnight stay is necessary due to location and time of the meeting or function.

These expenses will be proactively published and will be updated, as a minimum, every four months.

The published expenses information differentiates between expenses incurred on Devon and Cornwall Police business and those arising from the Assistant Chief Constable's National Police Chiefs' Council (NPCC) national business.

Devon and Cornwall Police Business:

Date	Purpose	Cost (inc VAT)

National Police Chiefs' Council National Business:

National Police Chiefs' Council (NPCC) is an independent, professionally led strategic body. In the public interest and, in equal and active partnership with Government and the Association of Police & Crime Commissioners, NPCC leads and coordinates the direction and development of the police service in England, Wales and Northern Ireland. In times of national need NPCC – on behalf of all chief officers – coordinates the strategic policing response.
